These called "reforms" in the Nippon Yusen Kaisha have, the Japan Gazette says, taken the form of rather sweeping charges. In addition to the position of Managers of Departments him by Dr. Fales of the American Consulate at being affected, some of the European employes Amoy, an old journalistic hand:in the Yokohama office have received an intima tion that their services will not be required after a certain date. The changes our contemporary believes were made without any forewarning, and were in some cases entirely unexpected.

A for days ago, as the fourth son of the Governor of Canton was passing the Tartar-General's Yamen in a chair, the front chair coolie medeutally came in contact with a Tartar military Ku-jen: From high words the coolie and the graduate came to blows, a lively scrimmane ensuing, in the course of which the chair panels were smashed in. The Governor's son in the meantime had had to take refuge in a shop near by. When the fight was over he returned home and reported the matter to his father; who communicated with the Acting Tartar General. Search was immediately made for theoffending Ku-jen, who was arrested near the West Gate while attempting to escape, and the affair is likely to result very unpleasantly for him. The Governor sent for some of the shopkepers in the neighbourhood and took down their cridence as to the occurrence.

A telegram in the Alta from Martford, Conneaticut, records a shocking orime there by a Chinaman. It says:-Charles Gong shot and killed Charles Lee to night (19th April). Both are Chinese laundrymen. One of the papers printed an article about Gong enticing small boys into his laundry for immoral purposes. Gong, thinking this information was furnished by Lee, lay in wait for him with the above results.

A wild beast resembling a jaguar was killed at Shaukiwan by some quarrymen on Saturday. The beast came down to one of the quarrymen's buts and carried off a dog. Chase was given. by a number of men armed with bamboss and the animal was caught and beaton to death. From the nose to the tip of the tail was found to measure eight feet, in length. The skin was retained by the capturers, but the flesh was disposed of to the villagers for twenty cents a catty.

After the wreck of the Turkish frigate Erlogroul, a collection was made by the Jiji Shimro in behalf of the families of the men who had lost their lives in the ship and of the survivors, and the money-amounting to 18,907.04 france-was carried to Turkey by Mr. Noda Shiotaro a representative of that journal. This benevolent act has been acknowledged by his Excellency Said Pashs, Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs, and by Husan Pasha, President of the Relief Committee. Japanese versions of the letters are cape to China, and were arrested for desertion. They were, it appears, setuated by patriotic motives. Anticipating that at some time in the near future complications will arise between China and Japan, and that hence it is desirable that Japan should become minutely acquinted with Chinese geography and military organisation, they resolved to undertake the necessary investigations, and with this in view set out for China. They sent their resignations by post to the commanding officer from Yokohama, which led-to their-arrest at Nagoya.
